Lights on- the festival
begins

Mother: Blessed are you o Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us by the Holy Spirit, and who sent us Yeshua, Jesus the Messiah to be the light of the world, Amen

The first cup

- Leader: Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, creator of the fruit of the Vine, Amen
- All: Blessed art thou, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who chose us from all the peoples and exalted us among all nations, by making us holy with His commandments, Amen

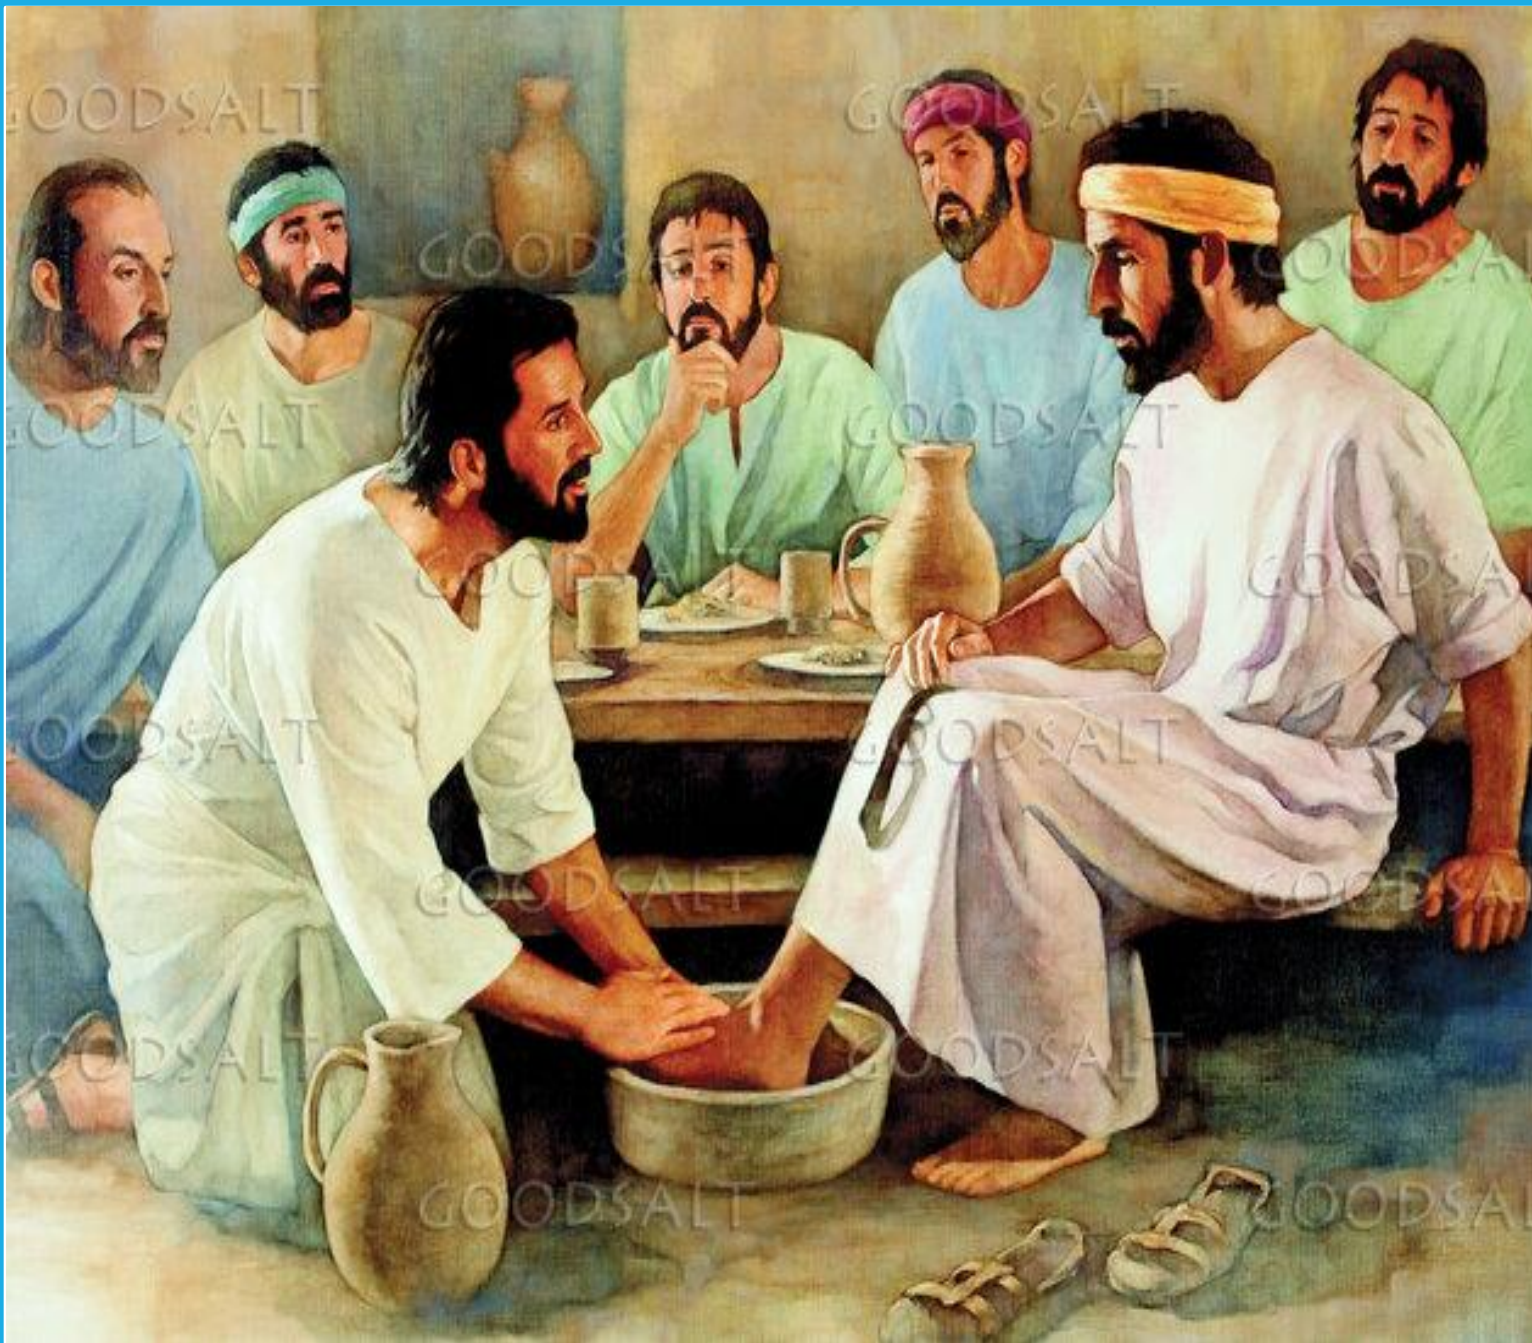

Washing of Hands

Ezekiel 36:25-27

I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. 26 And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. 27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules.

Luke 22:14-18

They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God." After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

AFIKOMAN

The background of the image is a serene night scene. The sky is a deep, dark blue, filled with numerous small, bright stars. Wispy, light-colored clouds are scattered across the sky, catching some of the starlight. In the foreground and middle ground, the dark, silhouetted peaks of mountains or hills are visible. The lower portions of these mountains are shrouded in a thick, white mist or fog, which fills the valleys and creates a sense of depth and mystery. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and majestic.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given:
and the government shall be upon his shoulder:
and his name shall be called
Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God,
The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6

Breaking of bread-

All: This is the bread of affliction which our forefathers ate in the land of Egypt. All who are hungry...let them come and eat. All who are needy...let them come and celebrate the Passover with us. Now we are here; next year we will be in the Land of Israel. Now we are slaves; next year may we be free men

The second Cup- the four questions

- 1. On all other nights we may eat either leavened or unleavened bread; but on this night why only unleavened bread?
- 2. On all other nights we eat herbs of any kind, but on this night why only bitter herbs?
- 3. On all other nights we do not dip our herbs even once, but on this night we dip them twice?
- 4. On all other nights we eat our meals sitting or reclining; but on this night why do we eat in a reclining position?

Maggid- telling of the Passover story

- And then there arose a new pharaoh, one who did not know Joseph. He beheld the might of Israel, and feared that in time of war, the son's of Jacob might join themselves with Egypt's foes.
- But despite their hardship, they continued to thrive, just as God had promised. This caused Pharaoh even greater alarm, and he ordered the slaughter of every male child born to a Hebrew to be cast into the Nile and drowned
- Let my people go.

But Pharaoh's heart was hardened. He would not yield to the will of God. He would not let the house of Jacob depart

- And the Blood shall be to you a token upon the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you and the plagues shall not be upon you when I smite Egypt
- By the blood of the lamb was Jacob redeemed. By the blood of the lamb was death made to pass over
- And just as the blood of those first Passover lambs were applied in faith to the doorposts of Israel's homes, so the blood of the Messiah must be applied to our hearts.
